

A nighttime photograph of a modern bridge. The bridge features a prominent, illuminated arch structure on the left side, supported by a network of cables. Below the main bridge deck, there are several large, illuminated, conical piers that resemble mushroom caps. The bridge deck is lined with a series of tall, thin light poles. The overall scene is lit with a mix of white and warm orange-red lights against a dark night sky.

De Oversteek,
een bijzondere
brug